News & Announcement

Prof. David Begun's Reanalysis of Ape Fossils Puts the Origin of Humanity at 10 Million Years Ago

David Begun has reanalyzed fossils of Dryopithecus apes, which lived 12.5 million years ago, and has found the characteristics of the skull suggest the Dryopithecus was actually a great ape itself rather than evolving earlier than the great apes as previously thought. If Dryopithecus is in fact a gorilla, that puts the species closer to humans and chimps, pushing back the time when humans split from chimps by about 2 million years. Prof. Begun will present on this research at the upcoming annual meeting of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology in Dallas, Texas later this month. Learn more in the New Scientist article by Jeff Hecht here.

PhD Candidate Travis Steffens Speaking at Trent University, Featured in Avenue Magazine

PhD Candidate Travis Steffens will be presenting a lecture on October 14 at Trent University as part of their Durham Anthropology Public Lecture Series. He will give a talk on the Marvels of Madagascar: An Anthropologist's Guide to Conservation in Madagascar. In this talk, Travis will describe what makes Madagascar so important and how he uses his anthropological training to work with local communities to improve their lives and to conserve biodiversity. Wednesday, October 14th, 5:10-6:20pm Room 125, Trent University Durham 55 Thornton Road South, Oshawa. Travis is also featured in this month's issue of Avenue Magazine in an article on "5 Calgary Adventure Legends: Meet five adventurous Calgarians who have climbed, biked and explored further than most." Check it out here.

PhD Student Walter Callaghan in the Media during Federal Election Campaign

As an advocate for disabled veterans of the Canadian Armed Forces, which is also the focus of his academic research, Walter Callaghan has been involved in several grass-roots organizations that are challenging the Harper Conservatives' bid for re-election. The scale and scope of this political activity by veterans has not been witnessed in Canada since after WWI – nearly 100 years ago! Walter's involvement is not limited solely to observing and recording these historic events, but he has also found himself being interviewed by different media because of his identity as a veteran.

Global News (28-Sept-2015) “Canada’s vets have Conservatives in their sights”

Spare Parts: Brock U Art Exhibit Based on Ethnographic Research of Prof. Monir Moniruzzaman (PhD, U of T 2010)

Spare Parts is a new collaboration between curator Camille Turner, artist Heather Dewey-Hagborg and medical anthropologist Monir Moniruzzaman with consultation by Jim Ruxton. In this installation exploring the illegal global organ trade, the viewer is confronted with life sized video projections of a Bangladeshi kidney seller and a Canadian transplant recipient facing each other and sitting in silence. The exhibit highlights the ethics of techno-medicine, the economy of the global marketplace, the intimacy of spare parts, and what is means to be human in the 21st century. Spare parts will be presented in conjunction with the Consuming Intimacies Symposium at Brock University’s Rodman Hall Art Centre at 109 St Paul Crescent in St Catharines October 6-19, 2015.
The Ethical Condition: Essays on Action, Person, and Value by Prof. Michael Lambek

Michael Lambek’s new book The Ethical Condition: Essays on Action, Person, and Value has just been published by the University of Chicago Press. An additional book, Four Lectures on Ethics: Anthropological Perspectives, with co-authors Veena Das, Didier Fassin, and Webb Keane, will appear in time for the American Anthropological Association meeting in November from Hau Books, also with the University of Chicago Press. The paperback edition of A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion, co-edited with Janice Boddy, and with several other University of Toronto contributors, will also be out for the AAA from Wiley-Blackwell. Recent book chapters are "Both/And," in What is Existential Anthropology?, edited by Michael Jackson and Albert Piette; and "Is Religion Free?" in Politics of Religious Freedom, edited by Winnifred Fallers Sullivan, Elizabeth Shakman Hurd, Saba Mahmood and Peter Danchin. Prof. Michael Lambek will also deliver a keynote address to the Australian Anthropological Society annual meeting this December.

Agonism and dominance in female blue monkeys by Karen Klass and Marina Cords

Karen Klass, a 2nd year PhD student working under the supervision of Prof. Shawn Lehman, is the first author of a paper that has been accepted to The American Journal of Primatology. The paper examines the agonistic behaviour and dominance system in a population of wild blue monkeys (Cercopithecus mitis) in Kenya using an extensive dataset spanning multiple years and groups. The results were then assessed to determine where C. mitis falls along despotic, tolerant, and nepotistic spectra, how their dominance system compares to other primates, primarily cercopithecines, and whether their agonistic behaviour matches socioecological model predictions. The online early view version of the article can be read here (DOI: 10.1002/ajp.22481).

Christian Personhood in a Ghanaian Pentecostal Church by Prof. Girish Daswani

Girish Daswani has published a paper in Milestones: AnthroCyBib Occasional Paper Series examining how church leaders and prophets from the Church of Pentecost reveal the different social arrangements through which a Pentecostal identity and its relations are constituted, managed, and brought into being in Ghana. The paper argues that the qualities of how church leaders and prophets of this church come together, and come apart, as individual or individual, can also be studied through a better understanding of kinship and the social structures that people cohabit. The paper can be read online here.
Upcoming Anthropology Events

Thursday, October 22, 2015

Degrees of Incarceration Film Screening and Q&A with Prof. Amahl Bishara (Tufts University)
Film screening of a documentary by Amahl Bishara and Nidal Al-Azraq about a Palestinian community’s response to the crisis of political imprisonment in Aida Refugee Camp, Bethlehem. $5, 7:00-9:00pm, Beit Zatun, 612 Markham St. Further info here. (RESCHEDULED from September 24)

Friday, October 23, 2015

Prof. Tony Weiss (University of Western Ontario)
Towards 120 billion: The destructive and violent trajectory of dietary change and livestock production Development Seminar, 12:00-2:00pm, SS 2125, 100 St. George St. A light lunch will be provided, please register here.

Prof. Amahl Bishara (Tufts University)
Varieties of Colonialism and The Politics of Fracture: Protesting the Gaza War in Israel and the West Bank
Anthropology Colloquium Series co-sponsored by Diaspora and Transnational Studies and Near & Middle Eastern Civilizations (RESCHEDULED from September 25), 2:00-4:00pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Further info and registration here.

Dylan Gordon (Anthropology PhD Candidate)
Reassembling Ethnography: Using Multi-Sited Fieldwork to Meet the Challenges of Researching the Canadian Wild Food Trade
Ethnography Lab, 5:00-6:00pm, AP 330. Further info here.

Tuesday, October 27, 2015

Mara Mulrooney (Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum, Hawaii)
A Society that Self-Destructed: Recent Archaeological Research on Easter Island (Rapa Nui)
AIA Jo Anne Van Tilberg Lecturer for 2015-16, 6:00-7:00pm, AP 130, 19 Russell St. Further info: http://aiatoronto.ca/lectures/

Friday, October 30, 2015

Academic Job Market Professionalization Seminar (Four-Field)
Graduate Workshop on navigating the academic job market, preparing a teaching portfolio, letter writing, CV preparation and interviewing. 1:00am-3:00pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Register here.

Friday, November 6, 2015

Prof. Noreen von Cramon-Taubadel
(SUNY)
The history and geography of human skulls
Anthropology Colloquium Series, 2:00-4:00pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Register here.

Friday, November 13, 2015

Presenting at Conferences: AAA and Beyond (primarily for SCL, but open to others)
Graduate Professionalization Workshop, 10:00am-3:00pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Register here.

Rebecca Gray (Anthropology MSc Student)
Tlach Ethnography and Oral Tradition: Ethnoarchaeology in Subarctic Canada
Ethnography Lab, 5:00-6:00pm, AP 330. Further info here.

Wednesday, November 18, 2015

Siobhan Boyd (Gardiner Museum)
Pambamarca Archaeology Project: Archaeology in the Ecuadorian Andes
OAS Toronto Chapter Meeting, 7:30pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Further info and poster here.

Tuesday, November 24, 2015

Prof. Jennifer Campbell (SUNY Potsdam)
Mughal Caravanserai Architecture: Amritsar to Agra, India
AIA Lecture, 6:00-7:00pm, AP 130, 19 Russell St. Further info: http://aiatoronto.ca/lectures/

Thursday, November 26, 2015

Anthropological Careers Beyond Academia: Medicine, Health and Wellbeing (for SCL and EVO)
Graduate Professionalization Workshop, 10:00am-12:00pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Register here.

Friday, November 27, 2015

Eugene Liscio (AI2-3D, Forensic Mapping, Analysis & Visualization)
3D Technologies in Anthropology
Anthropology Colloquium Series, 2:00-4:00pm, AP 246, 19 Russell St. Further info and registration here.
Upcoming Conferences & Workshops

Annual Bioarchaeologists’ Northeast Regional Dialogue Conference, October 17, 2015, SUNY Buffalo
This year’s conference will run from 9am to 5pm and includes a complimentary breakfast and lunch and will also feature an evening networking happy hour after the conference. The conference includes podium presentations, a poster session, and our keynote speaker, Dr. Ventura Perez, Associate Professor, University of Massachusetts Amherst. Please find attached to this email a flier with details. As in previous years, this is a free conference. However, we do request that you register for the conference here for planning purposes. This year, the Department of Anthropology at SUNY Buffalo also invites conference attendees to join us for an informal happy hour event on Friday, October 16th at Brick House Tavern from 5–7pm. See flier for details for this gathering! Further info at http://www.albany.edu/~sh518871/conferenceinfo.html

Qualitative Health Research: Informing Practice, Policy and the Preferred Future of Healthcare, International Institute for Qualitative Methodology (IIQM) Conference, October 17-21, 2015, Toronto
More than 20 workshops on key research skills are available for everyone: from graduate students to established researchers. We invite you to join the conversation at this premier qualitative health research conference. Through discussion, debate and dissemination we will address the challenges and opportunities for making Qualitative Health Research a driving force towards the preferred future of healthcare. Click here for further info.

2nd Tropical Biodiversity Conservation Conference, November 3-4, 2015, Prague
The main goal of this conference is to connect the non-profit sector with academia and to seek together the most effective way of protection of tropical rainforests and biodiversity. The conference focuses on all aspects of biodiversity conservation of tropical ecosystems. The main interest is the ecology of forest ecosystems, protection of animal species in and/or beyond the place of occurrence, as well as additional methods of biodiversity protection. The aim is that all topics will be relevant with the principles of sustainable development.

2016 Winter and Summer Irish Archaeology Field School
We offer a wide range of expert led research focused courses designed to introduce students to practical field methods, and to build and expand on knowledge and experience gained in the classroom. Courses are ideal for students of anthropology, archaeology, history, medieval studies, bioarchaeology, forensic anthropology, Irish studies and community archaeology. For further info visit http://iafs.ie/index.php/course-winter-2016-jan-feb/

Field Schools

Winter Primate Field School in Ometepe, Nicaragua, December 27-January 10
Are you looking for a primate field school during the winter holidays? U of T graduate Dr. Laura Bolt is instructing a two-week Primate Behavior and Ecology field school through Maderas Rainforest Conservancy in Ometepe, Nicaragua. This session still has space available for students.

Ometepe is home to mantled howler monkeys and white-faced capuchin monkeys. Students will spend mornings observing and collecting data on monkeys in the tropical dry forest, and afternoons attending daily lectures, and working on assignments. The course will culminate with independent projects on mantled howler monkey behaviour. You will learn a great deal about primates in a short time. This course is excellent preparation for graduate work in primatology, and a great way to gain field experience with wild primates.

Tuition/Fees: $2095 USD for course tuition, meals, lodging, and transportation within Nicaragua. Airfare is an additional cost. For more information and to apply, visit http://maderasrfc.org or contact Dr. Laura Bolt at laura.bolt@mail.utoronto.ca

Isla Mujeres Ethnographic Field School Special Winter Session, Research Design Symposium, January 2-17, 2016
This special winter symposium will focus solely on ethnographic research design and is ideal for any student who is either creating a new project or wants to tighten a working draft. This session is open to students of all levels, but will be geared mostly to MA and Ph. D. level research proposals (bring your current proposal drafts if you have one). Further info here.

Migration in the margins of Europe: From Istanbul to Athens, January 2016
Organized by the Netherlands Institute at Athens, the Netherlands Institute in Turkey and the Institute for Migration & Ethnic Studies of the University of Amsterdam. Application deadline is November 9, 2015. Further info and application form here.
Job Postings & Fellowship Opportunities

Senior Specialist, Western Canadian Arctic, World Wildlife Fund
http://bit.ly/1jNUU8h

Senior Research Associate, Behavioural and Qualitative Research, Cancer Care Ontario
Deadline: October 16, 2015
http://bit.ly/1LyoyuH

Assistant Professor, Forensic Chemistry, University of Toronto Mississauga
Deadline: October 22, 2015
https://utoronto.taleo.net/careersection/10050/jobdetail.ftl?job=1500962

Assistant Professor, Cultural Studies (Media Studies and Screen Cultures), Trent University
Deadline: November 2, 2015
http://bit.ly/1hqD5u1

Assistant Professor, Primatology, 9 Month Term Position, Central Washington University
Deadline: November 2, 2015
https://jobs.cwu.edu/postings/10679

Assistant Professor, Human Development, Sonoma State University
Deadline: November 2, 2015
http://careers.srcd.org/jobs/7558290

Islamic Legal Studies Program Visiting Fellowships, 2016-17, Harvard Law School
Deadline: November 13, 2015
http://ilsp.law.harvard.edu/how-to-apply/

Assistant Professor, Languages, Literatures and Cultures, Ryerson University
Deadline: November 16, 2015
http://bit.ly/1JTkejf

Assistant Professor, Biological Anthropology, Central Washington University
Deadline: November 16, 2015
https://jobs.cwu.edu/postings/11088

Assistant Professor, Comparative Literature/Arabic Literary, Film, and/or Visual Studies, Tufts University
Deadline: November 16, 2015
https://apply.interfolio.com/31867

Assistant Professor, Health Studies, University of Toronto Scarborough
Deadline: November 19, 2015
https://utoronto.taleo.net/careersection/10050/jobdetail.ftl?job=1501192

Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme, 2016-17
Deadline: December 1, 2015
https://cerg1.ugc.edu.hk/hkpfs/index.html

Assistant/Associate Professor, Aboriginal Health, Memorial University of Newfoundland

UofT Wants Your Input: Sustainability Survey Invitation
The Sustainability Office is surveying students, staff, and faculty to learn what the UT St. George community thinks and knows about sustainability and sustainability initiatives on campus.

Your participation in this 10-minute survey will inform our efforts to make UofT a greener space to work and study. In addition, you will learn more about sustainability and how you can get involved on campus. In thanks, we are offering an opportunity for respondents to enter into a raffle for one of ten $50 Amazon.ca or UofT Bookstore gift cards. There is no foreseeable risk in participating; all responses are confidential and anonymous.

The survey will be open for completion until Friday October 23, 2015. To access the survey, please click the following link: http://ca.studentvoice.com/uot/suslitsur2015

Questions regarding this survey should be forwarded to the Sustainability Office (sustainability@utoronto.ca).
Calls for Papers

Hipster Geographies: Socio-spatial practices, politics, and economies of one of culture’s most maligned figures, Panel at the AAG (Association of American Geographers) Annual Meeting, March 29-April 2, 2015, San Francisco

On the Immanence and Imminence of the Ethical: Anthropological Reflections on Ethical Time and Presence, January 2016, Centre for Ethnography, University of Toronto Scarborough
Submissions: Please email a 250-word proposal to Marie Meudec (marie.meudec@utoronto.ca) by October 15th, 2015. Submissions are welcome from faculty and advanced doctoral students. Names of organizational team (and confirmed participants): Girish Daswani, Naisargi Dave, Michael Lambek, Marie Meudec; Jack Sidnell, Donna Young Further info here.

International Journal of Responsible Tourism, Issue 1/2015
Deadline: October 19, 2015

CHRONIKA Volume 6, Spring 2016, Institute for European and Mediterranean Archaeology’s graduate journal
Deadline: October 23, 2015
http://www.chronikajournal.com/submit-an-article.php

Trips that Heal: Exploring Recent Trends in Wellness, Health and Medical Tourism, Special Issue 2/2015 of the International Journal of Responsible Tourism
Deadline: October 26, 2015
http://bit.ly/1LI32s3

Visual Research Methods and Visual Ethnographies, 2016 Qualitative Analysis Conference, May 11-13, 2016, Brock University
Deadline: October 31, 2015
http://www.qualitatives.ca/Home

I8th Colloquium for Students and Recent Graduates, Centre d’études ethniques des universités montréalaises/Centre for Ethnic Studies (CEETUM), March 16-18, 2015, University of Montreal
Deadline: November 11, 2015
http://bit.ly/1MZw0Mx

Masculinities, Violence and (Post-) Conflict, Postgraduate Conference, January 14, 2016, Belfast/Northern Ireland
Deadline: November 15, 2015
http://bit.ly/1Gw5cyP

9th Graduate Research Conference in Ethnic and Pluralism Studies, January 28-29, 2016, U of T Munk School of Global Affairs
Deadline: November 16, 2015

Water Security/Sovereignty in the Middle East and North Africa, Middle East Law and Governance Special Issue
Deadline: November 30, 2015
http://bit.ly/1VDCND2

Qualitative Inquiry in Neoliberal Times, Twelfth International Congress of Qualitative Inquiry (QI2016), May 18-21, 2016, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign
Deadline: December 1, 2015
http://icqi.org/

Security, Strategy, and Defense, 18th Annual Graduate Strategic Studies Conference, February 25-26, 2016, University of Calgary
Deadline: December 2, 2015
http://strategyconference.ca/

Chiasma Issue 3: Philosophy and The Future
Deadline: December 15, 2015
https://call-for-papers.sas.upenn.edu/node/64180

Deadline: January 8, 2016
http://bit.ly/1heTamx

NEXUS: The Canadian Student Journal of Anthropology
Volume 24
Deadline: January 15, 2016
http://journals.mcmaster.ca/nexus

IASFM 16: Rethinking Forced Migration and Displacement: Theory, Policy, and Praxis, July 12-15, 2016, Poznan, Poland
Deadline: February 1, 2016
http://iasfm.org/iasfm16/call-for-papers/

More Calls for Papers are listed on our website at http://anthropology.utoronto.ca/community/calls-for-papers/
Awards & Funding Opportunities

Dean’s International Initiatives Fund, Faculty of Arts & Science, U of T

The Faculty of Arts & Science invites proposals for the 2015-16 Dean’s International Initiatives Fund (DIIF) due November 11, 2015. The DIIF supports creative and innovative international activities in areas of need not already addressed by existing programming (Research Excursions (399/398 courses, International Course Modules, Germany/Europe Fund, Undergraduate Research Fund). The goal of DIIF is to leverage Faculty resources to provide a broad range of new and innovative international opportunities for undergraduate students. For 2015-16, $60,000 has been allocated for this competition. Faculty members and undergraduate students are encouraged to apply. We especially encourage proposals from units that have not previously submitted applications. Proposal forms and requirements are available at: http://uoft.me/DIIF

Deadline to submit applications to the Anthropology Chair’s Office, Attn. Kristy Bard (anthro.officeofthechair@utoronto.ca) is November 6, 2015. Approved proposals will be forwarded to the Faculty of Arts and Science by the November 11, 2015 deadline.

An information session will be held on October 20 at 12:00 p.m. in Sidney Smith Hall, Room 2040. Please register for this session by sending your name and department/program to fas.internationalprograms@utoronto.ca with “DIIF” in the subject line.

Canadian Friends of Hebrew University Endowment Fund, Faculty of Arts & Science, U of T

A permanent endowment fund established by the Faculty in partnership with the Canadian Friends of Hebrew University (CFHU) and U of T to promote innovative programs, courses or initiatives that support student activities involving Hebrew University. Instructors and students are invited to submit proposals for student-based activities in the range of $5,000 - $15,000 for the 2015-16 academic year (the total amount available for distribution is approximately $75,000). The general assumption is that the funded activity will take place within the fiscal year under consideration, although some flexibility regarding timing may be allowed.

Deadline to submit applications to the Anthropology Chair’s Office, Attn. Kristy Bard (anthro.officeofthechair@utoronto.ca) is November 2, 2015. Approved proposals will be forwarded to the Faculty of Arts and Science by the November 11, 2015 deadline.

An information session will be offered on October 15 at 4:00 p.m. in Sidney Smith, Room 2098 (History Conference Room). Register for this session by sending your name and department/program to fas.internationalprograms@utoronto.ca with “CFHU” in the subject line.

Further info also available online here.

Germany/Europe Fund, Faculty of Arts & Science, U of T

The mandate of The Germany/Europe Fund is to promote innovative programming, course-based enrichments or research initiatives that support undergraduate, graduate and faculty activities with a clear German/European component.

Examples of such activities might include:

- joint projects or courses with German/European partners
- support for student led initiatives
- development of institutional partnerships or collaboration by individuals or groups
- activities that support new or ongoing collaborative research

This list is meant to be illustrative only; applicants are encouraged to submit creative proposals that are in keeping with the spirit and objectives of this fund. Proposals are solicited from students and faculty up to a maximum request of $15,000. Funds will be available for the period May 1, 2016 – April 30, 2017. $80,000 has been allocated for this competition for 2015-16. A completed form forwarded from the chair/director/designate will be considered approved by your department or program. Deadline to submit applications to the Anthropology Chair’s Office, Attn. Kristy Bard (anthro.officeofthechair@utoronto.ca) is January 6, 2016. Approved proposals will be forwarded to the Faculty of Arts and Science by the January 13, 2016 deadline.

An information session will be offered on November 25 at 4:00 p.m. in Sidney Smith, Room 2098 (History Conference Room). Register for this session by sending your name and department/program to fas.internationalprograms@utoronto.ca with “GEF” in the subject line.

Further info also available online here.

Istituto Sangalli: Cities and Religions: Past and Present for a Peaceful Coexistence, Sangalli Institute Scholarship

Bi-annual scholarship at the Sangalli Institute for the religious history and cultures in Florence with the patronage of the Municipality of Florence and with the participation of UBI –Banco di Brescia on the occasion of the international Forum Unity in Diversity, November 5-8, 2015, Florence. The Sangalli Institute, following its vocation in supporting young researchers, have decided to establish a scholarship addressed to finance a young scholar, without any restriction of nationality, whose purpose would be to conduct a research plan on the subject of the coexistence and/or the settlement of the religious conflicts within some urban backgrounds. Application deadline is October 20, 2015. Further details at http://www.istitutosangalli.it/wp-content/uploads/2015/09/Announcement-of-selection-Cities-and-Religions.pdf
U of T & Community Events

October 8, 2015

The Politics of the Human
Ethics Seminar with Prof. Anne Phillips (LSE), 4:00-6:00pm, LA 200, 15 Devonshire Pl. Further info: http://ethics.utoronto.ca/events/224/seminar-talk-anne-phillips/

Book Launch: Why Haiti Needs New Narratives: A Post-Quake Chronicle by Gina Athena Ulysse
Sponsored by Caribbean Studies at New College and A Different Booklist, 7:30pm, WGSI Lounge, 20 Willcocks St.

October 9, 2015

The Crisis on the Borders of Europe
The Joint Initiative in German and European Studies presents Prof. Martin Schain (New York University), 12:00-2:00pm, 208N, 1 Devonshire. Register here.

Meritocracy and its Discontents
Legal Theory Workshop with Prof. Daniel Markovits (Yale Law School). A light lunch will be served. 12:30-2:00pm, Solarium (FA2), Falconer Hall, 84 Queen’s Park. Further info: http://www.law.utoronto.ca/events/legal-theory-workshop-daniel-markovits

October 13, 2015

The Puzzle of the Chinese Middle Class
Seymour Martin Lipset Lecture with Prof. Andrew J. Nathan (Columbia University), 4:00-6:00pm, Campbell Conference Facility, 1 Devonshire Pl. Further info and registration: http://munkschool.utoronto.ca/event/19154/

October 15, 2015

Gender, Migration, and the Work of Care: Current and Future Research
Panel discussion presented by the Dept. of Sociology, 4:00-7:00pm, Campbell Conference Facility, 1 Devonshire Pl. Further info: http://munkschool.utoronto.ca/event/19002/

October 18, 2015

Worn Dialogues: Exploring Black Feminine Identity
Join a panel of leading Canadian cultural critics as they explore the historical and contemporary constraints that can and have shaped Black female identity in Canada. 12:30-2:00pm, Royal Ontario Museum Eaton Theatre. Free, RSVP Required. Further info here.

October 20, 2015

Memories and the Museum: Sacred Objects in Secular Spaces
ROM Speaks talk with Dr. Michael Willis, 7:00-8:00pm, followed by reception, ROM Eaton Theatre. Further info and ticket purchase here.

October 22, 2015

The Biology of Desire: Why Addiction is Not a Disease
Dr. Marc Lewis speaks about his new book at this even sponsored by the Canadian Harm Reduction Network, 1:00pm, College St. United Church, 452 College St. For further info or to register: harmreductionTO@gmail.com

October 21-25, 2015

Planet in Focus
16th Annual Environmental Film Festival, including special events with Dr. Vandana Shiva and Amy Millan, plus 50 of the best environmental films, panels, workshops, etc. The first 75 U of T students get free entry into regular screenings when they show their student cards at the door. Further info at http://planetinfocus.org/

October 27, 2015

This One Summer – And Other Cool Things by Jillian Tamaki and Mariko Tamaki
To inaugurate the D.G. Ivey Library graphic novel collection, WGSI has invited Jillian Tamaki and Mariko Tamaki to come discuss their new graphic novel, This One Summer, 4:00-6:00pm, DG Ivey Library, New College, 20 Willcocks St. Light refreshments will be served. Further info here.

October 29, 2015

Precarious Work on Campus
7:00pm, Tranzac Club, 292 Brunswick Ave. Sponsored by The List, a monthly social space for progressive faculty and friends at U of T. Further info at https://utopenletter.wordpress.com/

November 27, 2015

Heroes and Gamblers: Tales of Survival and Good Fortune of the Poy Family
The Asian Institute presents the Honourable Dr. Vivienne Poy (U of T), 5:30-7:30pm, Campbell Conference Facility, 1 Devonshire Pl. Further info and registration: http://munkschool.utoronto.ca/ai/event/18893/